UPDATE – JULY 27, 2012**

Tucson Police Department Aggravated Assault Unit Detectives, with assistance from the public, have been conducting an extensive on-going investigation and have positively identified the driver of the pickup truck that struck and resulted in the death of Sterling Lytle on June 28, 2012. The driver has been identified as 39-year old Jesus Xavier Zepeda, also known as “Javie.” Jesus is described as a Hispanic male, 5’08” tall, weighing 200 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. Detectives worked diligently to not only identify Mr. Zepeda, but also to obtain a warrant for his arrest. He has not yet been located.

Additionally, the Tucson Police Department has not yet located the truck involved in this incident. Detectives were able to determine that the truck is a 2001 Chevrolet Silverado with custom paint in a color described as “burnt orange with a reddish tint.” The vehicle has graphics on it, which become more pronounced as one gets closer to the truck. It possibly has a camper shell on it in the same custom paint color and is possibly bearing Arizona license plate LMO7418. The Tucson Police Department believes that the truck remains in the United States, but is intentionally being concealed from law enforcement.
